VERSE 1

Up with the morning the heron is drawing tune
The rain from the mountain downstream
Silent she watches the ebb and the surge
Of the murmuring water beneath

VERSE 2

Rippling out to the furthest horizon (ooh) tune (harmony "ooh")
From deep in the peat on the moor (ooh)
The glitter reflects in each burn and each lochan (ooh)
Each feathering wave on the shore (ooh)

VERSE 3

Eternally circling in dance with the sunlight (ooh) tune (harmony "ooh")
The sea gives its jewels to the sky (ooh)
Returned by the cloud bearing rain to the mountain (ooh)
Foretold by the heron's proud cry (ooh)
